ANDS' SARSAPARILLA.
FOR THE REMOVAL AND PERMANENT CURE OF ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, OR HABIT OF THE SYSTEM.

NAMELY:
Scrofula, or King's Evil, rheumatism, obstinate cutaneous eruptions, pimples, or pustules on the face, blotches, biles, chronic sore eyes, ring worm or tetter, scald head, enlargement and pain of the bones and joints, stich-born ulcers, syphilitic symptoms, sciatica, or lumbago, and diseases arising from an injudicious use of the mercury, ascites, or dropsy, exposure or imprudence in life. Also, chronic constitutional disorders will be removed by this preparation.

The proprietors submit to the public the following certificate, from a highly respectable source, of cure made by using their preparation of Sarsaparilla, which cannot but have the effect of placing beyond all doubt the curative powers of the medicine.

New York, August 3, 1842.

Messrs. Sands—Gentlemen: Under a feeling of gratitude inherent to us all when suddenly relieved from suffering and disease, I now, as an act of justice due to you, and with a view of relieving a afflicted, make known to the world the inestimable benefit I have received from the use of your Sarsaparilla. In the year 1832 I sailed from England in a vessel bound for Quebec, and while on the passage first discovered the disease which afterwards proved to be a sore affliction; and truly I can say, on the crown of my head to the sole of my foot, there was no soundness in me. From the time first mentioned down until the present, a period of more than ten years, I have suffered all that human nature was capable of bearing. I have been under the care of the most distinguished physicians both in this country and in England, visited Bath, Cheltenham, Bristol and Gloucester, tried various species, among others a large quantity of Swain's mace, used sulphur baths, &c. As a last resort was induced to wrap myself in a tar ointment, and myself secluded, shunned by all, myself also planning. I was induced to believe my case a hopeless one.

In August last, by the advice of friends, I went to the New York City Hospital, but was there told that my case was incurable. The disease now enveloped my whole body, rendering me almost helpless; the skin thickened and cracked, and blood and matter ran, and life itself became almost a burden. A few weeks since I was induced to use your Sarsaparilla by hearing it so highly recommended, having spent nearly $3,000 without obtaining but little relief. After using it a short time, I found myself better, and now, by using six or eight bottles, costing me less than ten dollars, I am well. Yes, I certify and declare to the world, that after spending $3,000 in traveling and doctoring, and suffering more than can be told, I was perfectly cured by using your invaluable preparation of Sarsaparilla, and I now recommend it to all similarly afflicted. Those wishing to know further particulars will find me at my residence, No. 27 Warren street, New York, where I shall be happy to communicate anything in relation to the above cure.

PAUL BURDOCK.

Prepared and sold by A. B. SANDS & CO. Druggists and Chemists, Granite Buildings, 273 Broadway, corner of Chambers street, New York. And is sold by Druggists throughout the United States.

The public are respectfully requested to remember that it is Sands' Sarsaparilla that has and is constantly achieving such remarkable cures of the most difficult class of diseases to which the human race is subject, and ask for Sands' Sarsaparilla, and take no other.

G. W. LADD, Agent for this vicinity, and dealers will be supplied very low by the dozen.

DOCT. E. PRATT'S IMPROVED ARTIFICIAL NIPPLE.

TO the Medical Faculty it is presented for demonstration as a desideratum, when properly applied, in the following cases, viz.—where the nipple is inverted; where there is excoriation in its irritable form; or, even where it has completely sloughed. Perhaps the most extraordinary circumstance pertaining to its operation, is that it operates with perfect ease to the Mother, and perfect facility to the Child. They may be found at A. P. GUILD'S, may 20 Druggist, Exchange-st.

PATENT MILL WHEELS.

THE Subscriber having for a long time given his attention to the construction and operation of Water Wheels, has finally succeeded in the invention of two kinds of Wheels for which he has received Letters Patent from the Government of the United States.

These Wheels are simple in their construction, cheap and durable, are easily put in operation, and are not liable like most other wheels to get out of order, they are not obstructed by back water, when the head is not diminished thereby; and the same power and speed is obtained, with about one half the quantity of water usually applied to wheels now in general use.

A great number of these Wheels are now in operation and give in all cases entire satisfaction; and for further information respecting them the following gentlemen are referred to, all of whom have some of said wheels in operation: Jacob Drummond, James B. Fiske, Amos Davis and Leonard March, Esqrs., Messrs. Fiske & Norcross, Foster & Gilman, S. P. & H. Strickland, W. T. & H. Peirce & Co. Bangor; Hon. J. S. Little, Portland; Hon. John Otis, Hallowell; F. A. Butman, Esquire, Dixmont; Robert Treat, Geo. A. Peirce, Esquires, Frankfort; Daniel Demmett, Esq. Milo; Col. Henry Orne, Milton; Messrs. Lovell, Calais.

The above wheels are manufactured and for sale at the Iron Foundries of Messrs. HINCKLEY & EGERY and FRANKLIN MUZZY & Co in this city, who are furnished with a great variety of patterns, so that Wheels of any particular description, or adapted to any given head of water, can be furnished at short notice. They are also authorized to dispose of the Patent Right for the same.

Besides these there are 4000 flat boats upon these rivers. The downward trade, via, N. O. is reckoned at $120,000,000 per annum, and the upward at $100,000,000, leaving a balance in our favor of $20,000,000 to pay for goods brought in via the Lakes and Pennsylvania Canal, to say nothing of the produce conveyed away through those channels. ### The Election.

The whigs of Bangor owe it to themselves and the political cause to which they are attached, to put forth their strength unitedly at the approaching election, and secure the election of their candidates. The whig cause is the cause of the country. Whig measures tend to the up-building of the laborer—to help the mechanic, to support the arm of industry and to give the highest hope to the laboring poor. The policy of the whigs, is, to cause the government to exercise a wide, embracing regard for all classes and interests of the governed, and to put forth its power for the protection of its citizens against the world. It concerns every man who toils—it concerns every citizen of the United States—it concerns every one interested in having the government work out practical benefits to the governed, that whig measures should be adopted.

It is no time now nor is there any decent occasion for despondency. The time of doubting and fearing has passed. Our opponents are now figuring in division, and they have many hopeless problems to solve. Day light is dawning upon us after the night of uncertainty. The whigs of the country will again unitedly buckle on their armor and their feet being planted upon the true principles of the government, they will faithfully battle until those principles shall yield their practical fruits.

Dr. Cutter will give his second lecture of his course on Anatomy and Physiology. He will dissect his plastic model this evening and we can assure all that it will be highly interesting. If you never saw a man "taken all to pieces" now is the time.

Many "nice young men" are diligently enquiring how they shall escape the duty imposed upon them of doing duty in the Militia Companies of the city. This is easy enough. They can pay their fines, or saw their legs off.

About four hundred of the journeymen Tailors in Boston have struck for higher wages.

The People's Advocate, a Whig daily paper, has been revived in Boston.

The Loco majority in the Alabama Legislature on joint ballot will be 20—last year it was 43.

Sentence of Young Corson.

Moses Corson the young man who was a while since indicted in this city for the robbery of the Post Office by abstracting a letter containing a check for $500 has been arraigned before the U. S. District Court at Wiscasset, where he pleaded guilty and was sentenced to two years imprisonment in the county jail in this city. This case should be a warning to our young men to resist, no matter how prosperously temptation may present itself, manfully to resist the first suggestion of evil. Young Corson undoubtedly thought when he took from the office box the letter and then abstracted the check, that he could have the pleasure of spending the money and not be detected. But had he stopped to reflect, that his conscience, planted in his bosom for a wise and good purpose by his Creator, would not allow him to enjoy the apparent pleasures thus purchased—had he reflected that he was disobeying by his conduct an express command of God and also a law in his nature—had he seen how liable he was to detection and to how many weary hours of confinement and how deep disgrace he would bring upon himself, then, he would not, probably, have committed the crime. The great error with him was, and that against which we would warn all the young is, that thoughtful preparation of the heart and discipline of the mind to resist the first approaches of evil. "Lead us not into temptation" is an all important prayer and should always be seconded by an effort, by a wise training, to resist the suggestion of evil when it makes its appearance. For a young man to be lost to society is a grievous thing, and dreadful is it to have him spending his days and blighting his youth within the narrow boundaries of a prison, occasioned by his own folly and wickedness. Let every such case press with ponderous weight upon the minds of all. Thus the evils in the world may in some degree contribute to good.

LAW REPORTER, Sept. 1843.

This number has been received with its usual promptness. Among its contents is a report of the interesting case of IVORY K. MAXWELL, of Lincoln, in this county, which was a writ of habeas corpus sued out by him against his wife and her brother in order to obtain the custody of his two infant children. The principles involved were very similar to those of the celebrated De Hauteville case, and the decision, in effect, the same as that. The general principle, that the father is entitled to the custody of his children, is fully recognized, but the court say that this is not an absolute right, but one liable to be controlled by the facts of each case as presented. And in this case it being shown that the husband was in very poor and destitute circumstances, although no criminal conduct was proved leading to the desertion of the wife, yet the court decided to give her the custody of the children so long as they may need her particular oversight and nourishment. The court seem to think that "negligence or inability to provide suitable and sufficient food and raiment and a comfortable dwelling house for his family, is a sufficient cause for the wife's abandoning her husband and being permitted to retain the custody of her infant children." Though we can readily imagine the humanity of this rule, commending itself strongly to the sympathies of the public, yet we cannot help feeling that in its application as a rule of action in the community, it is one calculated to do great mischief, especially in a new settled country and among the pioneers, who from necessity are compelled to deprive themselves in a great measure of the comforts of life. The question is at least a very important one, and is one of late, frequently demanding the attention of our courts. An able criticism on the decision is also contained in the work.

This number also contains an interesting report of an amicable suit brought by the United States against the clerk of the U. S. Court for the District of Massachusetts, for the surplus fees of his office. The suit was brought for the construction of the law limiting the salary or fees of the clerks of the U. S. Courts. The decision is, that they have a right to retain from the fees of the office annually, the sum of $3500 as clerk of the District Court, and $2500 as clerk of the Circuit court besides the amount paid for clerk hire, the fees in bankruptcy to be reckoned with the other fees of the office. The whole amount of fees received in both courts in Massachusetts for six months preceding the first of January last, was $9,140 94.

Smith & Fenno have received another number of Parley's Cabinet Library, being the first part of "Famous men of Ancient Times." This is the work of S. G. Goodrich, and right well adapted is it to interest and benefit the youth of our country. A young man or young woman who shall possess this Library, and shall become acquainted with its contents, will have a treasure of biographical and historical information.

On our return from dinner yesterday we found upon our table the Commission of a Militia officer. The owner, who probably wished to warn out our regiment when we wish them in, can have the commission by proving property.

Bugbee has received Frederika Bremer's NINA, translated by Mary Howitt, and republished by the Harpers. This work keeps up the pleasant pictures of Swedish life, similar to those found in "The Home," "The Neighbors," &c.

E. F. Duren has received the August number of The Christian Lady's Magazine, a neat and highly interesting work.

We think the Lowell Courier right in its conclusion that the Loco who drinks the most rum is generally the loudest in his denunciation of the Whigs of 1840 for drinking "hard cider."

A deputation of Chiefs and Warriors of the Chippewa Tribe of Indians, located at the head of Lake Superior, and the most isolated of all tribes of American Indians, are now in New York, awaiting the sailing of a vessel to convey them to England, where they purpose paying before the Queen in person, certain grievances which they suffer from the Upper Canadians. These veritable sons of the forest, coming equipped with all the appointments of war, hunting, traveling wigwags, etc., and never having lived near the shore of the lake, every object in civilized life is subject matter for astonishment. They were filled with amazement on first beholding a steamboat, and passing through the locks of the Erie Canal, went through sundry ceremonies to propitiate the Evil Spirit, by whose agency they firmly believed the waters were made to sink down or rise over hills.

The Saco Democrat states that Miss Brown, wife of B. F. Brown, of Biddeford, was drowned near her residence, Monday forenoon. She fell from the bank into the river, while in the act of dipping up a bucket of water. She was rescued in a short time, but life was extinct.

The meaning of what we see.

Is there any definition of tyranny—any idea of what constitutes a tyrant, which is not fully satisfied by what Mr. Tyler is now doing among us? Will any person run over several of the most remarkable paragraphs of the Declaration of Independence, and say whether there was more to complain of in the conduct of the British King than in that of the now President of the United States?

Beyond all possible question, the power now acting at Washington is exclusively selfish—and this is a grand element of tyranny, when power is exercised and patronage dispensed exclusively for the benefit of the Governor, without regard to the interest of the governed. Mr. Tyler makes Mr. Anderson Collector, not for any public use, but merely because he expects through Mr. Anderson to compass his own personal ends. Public considerations are entirely and completely thrown aside by both parties—it is a mere matter of personal bargain between them, and when such are the relations between the Chief Magistrate and his under officers, the people not being consulted nor taken into account, then, we are under essential tyranny, which no pretences ought to hide from our loathing sight.

And just as Mr. Tyler is proved by his arts to be a tyrant, so those who receive the bribe he offers for carrying out his base designs are to be regarded as parasites and corruptionists in their very grain.

This policy which Tyler is now forcing upon us does not even attain to the dignity of Jackson's course in 1829. That was had enough, and wicked enough, but this is equally wicked, and vastly more mean and low lived. Jackson said he would reward his friends—that is, those who had before stood by him in the contests he had gone through.

Mr. Tyler, however, has not a friend in the world of that description. All who were his friends he has discarded. It is they whom he hates worst. It is upon them, that he now wishes to wreak his vengeance by "punishing them as his enemies," and in order to do it, he is reduced to the necessity of hunting round to find the most venal and mercenary of his old enemies who will enter into his views, and be the instruments of exerting his narrow spite. The ranks of the Locofoeos are full of just the right sort of men for his use. He has only to name his price, and the man is ready for any post, and thus tyrannical power, which had not a real friend in the world, by the skillful use of its gold can create at once as many parasites and flatterers, as it has the means of rewarding.—Portland Advertiser.

Another arrest under the Treaty.

The ship Adirondack, which arrived at New York on Friday from Liverpool, was boarded below the Narrows by Mr. Fountain, a deputy sheriff, who took from her a Mr. George Cooper, a cabin passenger, who is reported to have left England with a large amount of funds, chiefly in gold, taken from his father. He was taken before the U. S. District Court for a hearing.

The Bay State Democrat cites various former acts of President Tyler, to show that he is not worthy the support of the democratic party—and more than intimates that his present course, although every body knows it is purely democratic, is not a sufficient atonement for his past political transgressions!

An account of the arrival at Quebec of the Adventure steamer from Toronto, will be found under the head of Shipping Intelligence. This is the first steam vessel that has arrived at Quebec from Toronto. The tonnage of the Adventure is 58 tons, and here is proof that the navigation is now open for vessels of this class, from the sea to Chicago on Lake Michigan, a distance of about two thousand miles.—Quebec Gazette, Aug. 30.

A Melancholy Story.

A letter dated on the 11th instant at Jacksonville, East Florida, and published in the Savannah Republican, relates the following truly melancholy details of an event that lately occurred in the neighborhood of Alligator:

"The father of a family, consisting of a wife and two sons, in the vicinity of that place, was taken sick, and during his illness, there being no food in the house, the wife took the gun for the purpose of procuring game. Having wandered out of the way she got lost, and after three days' solitary adventure in the wilderness, she at last, weary and sick, found her home, and her husband a corpse! Being unable to act further, she sent her eldest boy to the house of a neighbor some seven or eight miles off, for assistance. The little fellow shortly after his arrival beneath the friendly roof, through previous sickness and present excitement beyond his years, became ill, and before he could tell his tale, died. A few days after, the house was visited, when, oh, deplorable sight! alongside of the father was found the dead bodies of his wife and remaining son! The tale is short but true. They all had perished through starvation. The tear of sympathy will freely flow when recounting such events."

Shall we go Back?

The one leading measure only which the Whigs have been fully to establish—a Protective Tariff—has been in operation less than a year, and the honest locofoeos are compelled to allow that it has worked wonders for the country—brought to us some $30,000,000 of specie—revived business—and is now gradually and surely restoring depressed wages, and redeeming with incredible rapidity the country from the wreck and ruin into which locofoecism had plunged it. All this they have to confess, yet they are willing for the sake of party to undo the Tariff and send us back again headlong into the vortex from which we are rapidly rising.

A decree from the provisional President, authorizes the establishment of a fair, annually in the vicinity of the river St. Juan, which empties into the Gulf of Mexico at about five miles from Vera Cruz. The railroad from Vera Cruz is to terminate at the river, and is in a state of construction.

A private correspondence from Mexico, of the 30th July, announcing that, notwithstanding the report prevailing about the settlement of the affair with Yucatan, there is almost a positive certainty that as yet nothing has been concluded. The difficulty in the negotiation, it is said, grows out of the ridiculous pretensions of the Yucatecenses. It is reported that 6000 men are to be despatched to Jalapa for the purpose of forming a camp there. There is every ground to believe that the troops are destined to act in the Peninsular.

The second instalment due to the United States has been faithfully paid to the agent of our government.

BY THE MAILS.

Later from Hayti—Another Great Revolt at Aux Cayes.

Captain Mann, of the brig Mohican, at New York, from Port au Prince, reports that when he left, intelligence had been received that a revolt had broken out at Aux-Cayes. The rebels were headed by one calling himself "King Solomon the First," and their numbers were said to be two thousand. The National Guards and all the citizens of Port au Prince, capable of bearing arms, were ordered to prepare for immediate march, to assist in subduing the rebels, and were waiting for the return of General Rivera, who was at the north of the island, quelling an insurrection caused by the Spaniards. The patriots at Aux Cayes were under command of General Lazara.

On the ninth of August a battle was fought near Auxays, which resulted in the defeat of the rebels; who had one hundred and five killed and a large number wounded. The patriotism of General Lazara was questioned by the mulattoes, he being black, but it he should prove true to the cause of the Patriots, the Rebels would undoubtedly be obliged to capitulate.

We are informed that the cause of the insurrection was a jealousy existing on the part of the blacks, occasioned by the fact, that the mulattoes filled all the most conspicuous offices of Government, while the blacks were obliged to be content with the inferior grades.

Up to the hour of the brig's sailing, no further advices had been received from Aux Cayes, and Gen. Rivera had not arrived from Port au Prince, but was hourly expected. All was quiet there at the time of sailing.

The Lowell Courier states that Mr. Jonathan Varnum, of Dracut, while employed, last Tuesday, with two of his sons, in pulling up apple trees, met with an accident, which caused his death on Friday morning. He was a very worthy man, and his loss will be severely felt. He was 75 years of age.

A letter from Barre states that Mr. Goddard is very sick, and his mind in a state bordering on destruction, on account of the late developments.

After which he will harness his noble lion to an ancient Car, and drive over a road erected across the Pavilion. Concluding with a most bold, grand and daring display of courage ever presented, in having a whole caravan of wild animals let loose upon him at the same time, who will then playfully exhibit his skill in subduing and controlling this matchless exhibition.

The exhibition contains a larger number and greater variety of animals than has heretofore been exhibited together, the whole of which is secured in strong iron cages.
